

Fletcher Free Library Diversity Statement

“Everyone is welcome.
You are central to our mission.”

<https://www.fletcherfree.org/MissionVisionAndStrategicPlan>

Joslin Memorial Library Value Statements

- ▶ We seek & nurture relationships with other organizations to develop partnerships that help move the Mad River Valley forward.
- ▶ We recognize that our staff & volunteers are our greatest resources. We are passionate about our work, we have fun, & we work together as a team. We trust each other & respect each other's diverse ideas & experiences.

<http://www.joslinmemoriallibrary.com/library-policies.html>

Inspiration from Other Fields:

Burlington City and Lake Semester

- ▶ We honor the inherent dignity and worth of all people.
- ▶ We fully embrace and welcome the diversity of our community as expressed through race, ethnicity, socioeconomic status, ability, sexual orientation, gender expression, religion, national origin, immigration status, language background, language proficiency, and family structure.
- ▶ We build community through practices that nurture trust, develop resilience, and help everyone feel like they belong.
- ▶ We incorporate diverse perspectives into the projects and experiences of BCL students.

Inspiration from Other Fields:

Springboard for the Arts

Excerpt from their mission statement:

“Springboard for the Arts’ mission is... to build just and equitable communities full of meaning, joy, and connection.”

<https://springboardforthearts.org/about-us/principles-vision/>

Back to Libraries

Stowe Free Library Mission Statement:

“To Welcome...To Inspire...To Enrich the Mind.”

<https://www.stowelibrary.org/mission-vision-and-values.php>

Greensboro Free Library Mission Statement:

“The Greensboro Free Library’s mission is to bring its community together by providing resources and programs for lifelong learning, enrichment and access to the world of information.”

<https://greensborofreelibrary.org/>